

V5- INDEPENDENT
VERIFICATION WORKSHEET

Your application was selected for review in a process called "Verification." In this process, SCCC will compare information from your FAFSA with this worksheet and financial data you must submit. The law requires completion of Verification before awarding and/or disbursing federal aid. If there are differences between your FAFSA application and your verification documentation, electronic corrections to your FAFSA may be required. Contact SCCC Financial Aid at (620) 417-1110 if you have questions.

INSTRUCTIONS

*If more space is required, attach a separate page.

Note: If you lost or never received a W-2, contact your employer to request a copy to provide with this form.

The 3 acceptable methods to submit Federal tax information are:

1) Signed Copy of 2020 1040 federal tax return: Please sign and return a copy along with all schedules and W-2's. OR

2) IRS Data Retrieval Tool:

Directly import 2020 IRS data into your FAFSA: Log into www.fafsa.gov, select Make Correction. Choose 2022-23 FAFSA.

Click on Financial Information tab. Select Already Completed from drop down box. Enter Parent FSA ID and click on Link to IRS. Continue to IRS.gov site. Enter Info as requested and submit. Click on box next to "Transfer My Tax Information into the FAFSA." Then click Transfer Now. Transferred data will be encrypted. Remember to electronically sign and submit the FAFSA again. OR

3) IRS Tax Return Transcript:

Submit your 2020 Tax Return Transcript. Go to www.irs.gov. Click on "Get Your Tax Record," then click "Get Transcript Online" or "Get Transcript by Mail." Create an account. Select Tax Return Transcript for 2020. Mail or email PDF to the address below. Please remember to put student's name on the transcript!

If you did not file a 2020 federal tax return:

You are required to submit proof of non-filing from the IRS if a 2020 tax return was not filed. Follow the same instructions as transcript above, but select "Verification of Non-filing Letter" instead of tax return transcript. If you are an independent student on the FAFSA who is not required to file a federal tax return, you must obtain a verification of non-filing status letter.

*When requesting tax transcripts or using IRS Data Retrieval Tool, address & name must match exactly as printed on the tax return.

Each person signing this worksheet certifies that all of the information reported on it is complete and correct.

D. High School Completion Status

Provide one of the following documents that indicate the student's high school completion status when the student will begin college in 2022-2023:

High School Diploma

- A copy of the student's high school diploma.
- A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A copy of the "secondary student leaving certificate" (or other similar document) for students who completed secondary education in a foreign country and are unable to obtain a copy of their high school diploma or transcript.

Recognized Equivalent of High School Diploma

- A copy of the student's General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript.
- A State certificate or transcript received by a student after the student has passed a State-authorized examination (HiSET, TASC, or other State-authorized examination) that the State recognizes as the equivalent of a high school diploma;
- An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
- For a person who is seeking enrollment in an educational program that leads to at least an associate degree or its equivalent and who excelled academically in high school but did not complete high school, documentation from the high school that the student excelled academically and documentation from the postsecondary institution that the student has met its written policies for admitting such students.

Homeschool

- If State law requires a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- If State law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a homeschool setting is required.
